(GUIDE BOOK FOR PHD SCHOLARS & SUPERVISORS)

Version 1.0 | 2022

NATIONAL DEFENCE UNIVERSITY
ISLAMABAD-PAKISTAN

This Manual is prepared for the guidance of PhD students and supervisors and cannot be challenged in any Court of Law.

PREFACE

The Doctor of Philosophy (PhD) is a degree program that provides the mastery of research skills to those interested and passionate to contribute in academic world. The PhD aspirants are taught, guided and supervised for intellectual value addition and are prepared to provide scientific reasoning and solution-oriented knowledge to the modern world. To make aspirants more focused during their PhD journey, this manual is hereby provided.

The objective of this manual is to deliver the guidelines for the PhD students during their study period at NDU. The content of this manual is prepared in the light of HEC guidelines, NDU Academic Regulations, Policies and Standard Operating Procedures. The purpose of this document is only to facilitate in understanding policy and procedural requirements at different stages and is for guidance only and cannot be challenged in any Court of Law.

CHAPTER 1

ADMISSIONS

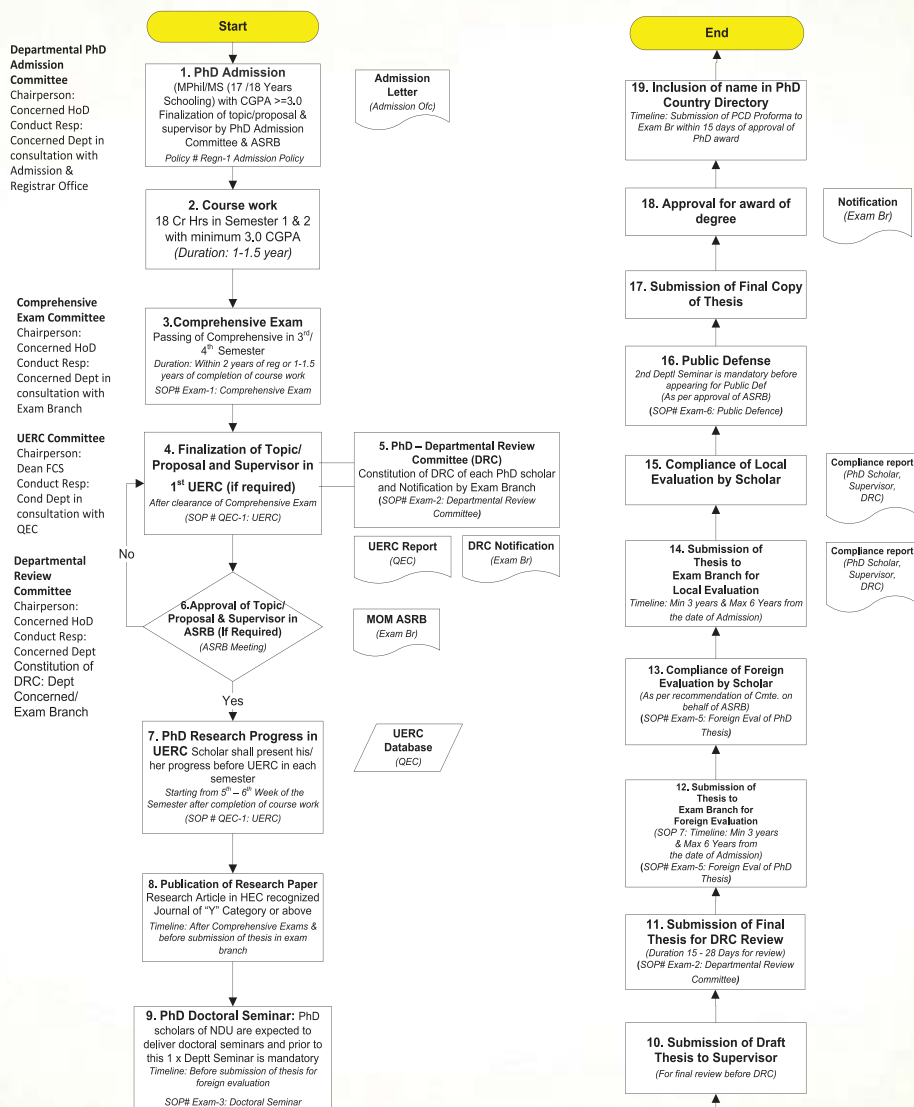

1. The admissions to PhD programme are offered by all departments at NDU in accordance with provisions of NDU Academic Regulations, Policies and SOPs. The candidates can submit admission form online along with the required academic documents after the advertisement. Applications will be considered subject to meeting eligibility criteria (as per NDU website) and availability of relevant supervisor. 'Admission Policy' available at NDU website may also be consulted for detailed information.
2. Guidelines for Prospective Applicant. Candidates desirous to seek admission in PhD programmes are required to remain abreast on following aspects:-
 - a. Visit NDU website (www.ndu.edu.pk) for eligibility criteria, merit determination criteria and timelines
 - b. Prior interaction / searching of respective faculty in the department/ HOD for supervision in his / her research domain
 - c. Must be clear and prepared on his/ her area of research/ thesis
 - d. Preparation of comprehensive proposal
 - e. Apply timely on online admission system as and when admissions are announced.
3. Ineligibility. Any one rusticated or expelled from college or university for misconduct or use of unfair means.
4. Selected applicants will be issued provisional admission letter after payment of fee within given timeline.
5. Allocation of Supervisor. A full time faculty member (HEC approved supervisor) shall be provisionally appointed as supervisor and co-supervisor

(if required) at the time of Admission who shall be confirmed after the approval of ASRB.

6. Admission on the Basis of Transfer of Credit Hours from other HEC Recognized Universities. Students interested to apply for admission on the basis of transfer of credit hours shall apply on the prescribed form (available at NDU website) at least two months prior to the start of semester to Registrar Office.

7. For further details consult Admission Policy available at NDU website.

8. Flow chart of PhD Degree/ Research is as under:

Note: PhD supervisor or scholar having any grievances / complaints related to PhD process may submit an application to Dean FCS office. Dean FCS shall process the case for decision from Competent Authority and will convey the decision to scholar within 15 working days.

9. Time Line of PhD Journey at FCS, NDU. Purpose of under mentioned table is to state the milestones linked with time period, activities and university department/branch involvement. “T” represents month (i.e. To means date of commencement of degree programme) and each activity is linked with time period as a guide and if scholar follows the below timeline he/she can finish PhD in minimum time period which is 3 years. Any delay in below time line will lead to more number of months and years respectively.

- (1) Section A. Two compulsory questions from core courses (one from Research Methodology (15% weightage) and one from Theory (35% weightage)).

(2) Section B. Any two questions out of minimum three from elective courses (50% weightage).

(3) Passing Marks. 60%

b. Oral Examination (40% weightage).

(1) Students after passing written examination shall be eligible to appear in oral examination carrying 40% weightage in the final grade. Passing marks will be 60%.

(2) The Oral part will specifically focus on proposed research area, framing and application of research methodology, and theoretical framework on students' research.

6. For further details consult SOP on Comprehensive Examination available at NDU Website.

CHAPTER 4
UNIVERSITY EXAMINATION AND RESEARCH
COMMITTEE (UERC)

1. University Examination and Research Committee (UERC) is the most critical aspect for a PhD process. The UERC will be constituted by QEC in consultation with department and supervisor as defined in SOP for each PhD scholar, after passing the Comprehensive Examination to monitor and evaluate the progress of research of the scholar against the set goals and to provide guidance for enhancing quality of research.

2. Composition. Dean FCS shall be the Chairperson of UERC. In case the Dean is the supervisor of the scholar, then senior most professor of FCS, appointed by CA shall chair the UERC meeting. Composition of UERC is prescribed in the UERC SOP.

3. Responsibility of the Research Scholars.

- a. Mandatory appearance in the scheduled University Examination Research Committee (UERC) meetings after passing Comprehensive Examination. Present plan of action, timelines and any related issues before the first meeting of UERC and Bi-Annual progress of research in each semester as per presentation template available in UERC SOP.
- b. Submit final research topic and proposal duly recommended by the supervisor, Departmental PhD Committee for consideration of UERC.
- c. Prepare PhD Log and present progress (as per presentation template) before the UERC. PhD Log will be maintained by respective PhD scholar and shall remain in the custody of the supervisor.

- d. Remain abreast with academic policies and deadlines.

4. Role and Responsibilities of Supervisor.

- a. Director. To integrate theory and methodology with substantive issue of research in each chapter to produce a well-knit, integrated thesis. It is the prime responsibility of a supervisor to provide ideas to determine, refine and finalize the thesis topic/title at an early stage.
- b. Facilitator. The supervisor should facilitate PhD scholars by providing access to necessary resources and suggest measures in organizing field work.
- c. Advisor. The supervisor should perform the advisory role by solving technical problems and suggesting good alternatives.
- d. Teacher. The supervisor should guide PhD students about research techniques and other relevant strategies according to approved thesis topic.
- e. Guide. Guidance should be available throughout the PhD Journey
- f. Critic: The supervisor should critically analyze the draft, its chapters and interpretation of data of the thesis.
- g. Supporter. The role of a supervisor should always be supporting and should thoroughly engage at all stages of the research work.
- h. Manager. The supervisor should check the research progress regularly and give the feedback systematically in order to further monitor and evaluate the research within the given timeline. All this correspondence should preferably be through official emails.

- i. Examiner. Supervisor must properly conduct internal assessments / reviews in the form of Mock viva / exams. Conduct mock exercise for Doctoral Seminar and Public Defence.
- j. Custodian. PhD Log prepared by the PhD scholar shall be in custody of respective supervisor

5. Roles and Responsibilities of UERC.

- a. Recommend Final topic of thesis for approval of ASRB.
- b. Critically examine biannual progress and quality of research during the period.
- c. Debate each & every aspect of the proposal, including hypothesis, research questions, conceptual model/framework, validity of data collection instruments, choice of data analysis tools, expected results and contribution to the existing body of knowledge etc.
- d. Evaluation and research progress of the scholar on specified proforma / checklist available in the SOP of UERC for presentation before ASRB.
- e. In case of unsatisfactory report, inform the scholar in the committee meeting and provide a written report to HOD for dissemination through scholars' email / last working address.
- f. Provide appropriate guidance and document it.
- g. Recommend change of Supervisor and Research Topic, if required.

6. Absence from UERC Meeting. If a scholar absents from UERC meeting without any verifiable reason or fails to present research progress on the pre-announced date, he / she will be considered as fail by default. HOD shall communicate the decision of adverse report in writing in a formal letter to PhD researcher with a copy to QEC and Exam Branch.
7. Approval of Progress Report by ASRB. Progress reports duly endorsed by UERC will be placed before ASRB twice a year for approval.
8. Adverse Reports. In case of two consecutive adverse reports or total three adverse reports, the registration of PhD student shall be cancelled after approval of ASRB.
9. Change of Supervisor. Change of supervisor is to be discouraged; however, Supervisor of the scholar can be changed on his / her request or by the University on the recommendation of UERC and after approval of ASRB.
10. Change of Topic. PhD Researcher may change topic of thesis on recommendation of his / her supervisor and UERC after approval of ASRB.
11. For further details consult SOP on UERC available at NDU Website.

CHAPTER 5

DOCTORAL SEMINAR

1. Eligibility. It will be mandatory for each PhD scholar to deliver a Doctoral Seminar relevant to his/ her research at University before the submission of thesis to Department subject to meeting following criteria:

- a. Completion of 90% of research work (unless amended) duly confirmed by UERC.
- b. After having delivered at least one department level seminar.

2. Conduct. Department will be responsible to arrange Doctoral Seminar as per timelines given in Academic Calendar. PhD Scholar in consultation with the supervisor will finalize the details of research work to be presented in the Seminar.

3. Attendance. Besides mandatory attendance of Dean FCS, all HoDs, Supervisor and Co-supervisor, Doctoral seminar will be attended by all available departmental faculty, designated members of UERC, DRC, Rep of Exam Branch and PhD Scholars / students of the University and general public.

4. Compliance of Suggestions. DRC members will record the suggested changes during the Seminar and communicate to the Supervisor within 72 x hours with copies to Dean FCS Office and each UERC member to ensure the compliance of suggestions / amendments proposed during the doctoral seminar.

5. For further details consult SOP on Doctoral Seminar available at NDU Website.

CHAPTER 6

PUBLICATION OF RESEARCH ARTICLE(S) IN HEC RECOGNIZED JOURNAL(S)

1. Requirement of Paper Publication. Each PhD researcher will publish at least one quality research paper as a first author based on PhD research (after passing Comprehensive Exam and before submission of thesis in the Department) in HEC approved 'Y' or above category journal (unless amended). The published article must be written by not more than three authors.

2. Vetting of Research Publication. A published copy of the research article submitted by PhD scholar shall be checked by QEC for category and relevancy of Journal. The dept will check relevancy of article to area of scholar's research before submission of PhD thesis to Examination Branch.

3. Guidelines for Selection of Research Journal. PhD scholars must remain abreast and careful in selection of the Research Journal while publishing the article. Publication in a cloned/ bogus/ dubious Journal shall lead to disciplinary action. Check list and guideline for selecting quality journals for publishing research articles are available at <https://www.ndu.edu.pk/downloads.php>.

CHAPTER 8

THESIS SUBMISSION FOR FOREIGN EVALUATION

1. General. Thesis submitted to Examinations Branch for foreign evaluation after vetting and recommendations by DRC will be considered as formal submission of thesis.

2. Eligibility. A PhD Scholar is to submit thesis to the Department after completion of following:-

- a. Publication of at least one research article in minimum 'Y' category HEC recognized research journal as first author duly vetted / confirmed by QEC. The relevancy of the research article with the approved topic is to be checked by the Department.
- b. Successfully delivered Doctoral Seminar and confirmation of incorporation of changes suggested during Doctoral Seminar by DRC.
- c. Thesis is complete in all respect and checked by the supervisor only with similarity index within the laid down limits i.e. < 19%. Scholar must check the similarity from supervisor's Turnitin account and avoid checking from other internet sources to prevent submission to online repository.
- d. Has attended minimum 10 x PhD relevant thesis defence in different public / private universities preferably in the scholar's discipline of knowledge/ research.
- e. For further details consult SOP on PhD Thesis Submission available on NDU website.

3. Responsibility of Scholar before Submission of Thesis to Department. A PhD Scholar must ensure following steps before submission of thesis to the department for evaluation by DRC:-

- a. Thesis is complete in all respect.
- b. A detailed evaluation report of thesis by the supervisor is attached.
- c. Hard and Soft copies of the thesis are the same.
- d. Citations, footnotes and bibliography are properly given on hard and soft copies of thesis.

4. Roles and Responsibilities of DRC. DRC (constituted by HOD and notified by the Examinations Branch after conduct of Comprehensive Exam) will be responsible for the following:

- a. Attend the Doctoral Seminar and suggest changes (if any) in the research work of the scholar.
- b. Carry out thesis review within 15 to 28 days after submission.
- c. Submit detailed report (along with checklist of changes if required) duly signed by all members, to the HoD concerned.
- d. Review the Thesis after receipt of Foreign Evaluators reports.
- e. Ensure and certify compliance of observations by Foreign and local External Evaluators before holding of Public Defence.

5. Final Submission of Thesis to Examination Branch for Foreign Evaluation. Scholar can submit the Thesis to the Examinations Branch for foreign evaluation after recommendation of DRC along with documents as per checklist given in PhD Thesis Submission SOP.

6. Thesis shall be deemed as submitted only after confirmation of completion and submission of all required documents by the Examination Branch in the semester i.e. before 31st August for Spring semester and 31st January for Fall semester (as applicable).

CHAPTER 9
PUBLIC DEFENCE, SUBMISSION OF FINAL COPY OF THESIS AND DOCUMENTATION FOR PCD

1. Eligibility for Public Defence. A PhD scholar shall be eligible for Public Defence subject to receipt of two positive reports of Foreign Evaluators and approval of ASRB in accordance with SOP of Foreign Evaluation of Thesis.
2. Conduct. Public Defence shall be scheduled after positive evaluation of thesis by Local Evaluators. Scholar shall present his /her research before the audience followed by questions and answer session without any time limit in accordance with SOP of Public Defence.
3. Submission of Hard Bound Copies. After successful defence and incorporating all observations of the evaluators, scholar shall submit four hard bound copies along with soft copies on CDs and email to Examination Branch through the dept concerned.
4. Provision of Documents for PhD Country Directory (PCD). After the approval of PhD award by ASRB, graduate shall submit following documents to the dept at the earliest:-
 - a. PCD Proforma (available at HEC website) duly filled and no column / entry to be left blank.
 - b. Scholar's certificate of same hard and soft copies of PhD thesis that have been processed through Turnitin for similarity check by the supervisor and countersigned by the supervisor.
 - c. Supervisor's signed similarity index report from his/her Turnitin account showing overall and individual sources similarity within prescribed limits.
